INTERNATIONAL PROFESSIONAL AND RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Policy Statements and Reports

- 2001 B. I. Logan. Guidelines for Implementing Micro Credit Operations in the Republic of Georgia. Tbilisi: IOCC. Manual written to help IOCC and other NGOs operating in Georgia to implement micro-credit programs for farmers and small-scale rural entrepreneurs. Among other things, the manual details application criteria, field screening procedures, application screening procedures, gender components, applicant responsibilities, business training procedures. This manual represents hands-on development.
- B. I. Logan. Final Report on Georgia Assistance Initiative -Drought Assistance in Southern Georgia. Tbilisi: IOCC. Report written for Save the Children, an international NGO that was implementing emergency drought assistance in Southern Georgia. The report details how $500,000 was spent by IOCC to help farmers in the region recover from the 2000 drought. The report is an example of professional/applied geography.
- 1999 B. I. Logan. African Development versus Sustainable Development. Harare, Zimbabwe. Report written for Leadership for Environmental Development (LEAD), an environmental NGO that helps Southern African governments to frame conservation policies. This is a policy document that actually influences conservation strategies in Zimbabwe.
- 1995 B. I. Logan. Manpower Planning for Science-Led Development in Africa. Resource paper prepared for the Second Presidential Forum on Science-Led Development in Africa. DESSA: Nairobi, Kenya. Report Written For heads of state to tackle the brain drain problem in the Southern African region. This is a policy document prepared for heads of state and leading technocrats who frame policy on the brain drain for the whole southern Africa region.
- 1994 B. I. Logan. The Brain Drain From Africa to the United States. International Organization for Migration: Geneva, Switzerland. Report written for a United Nations agency seeking to create policy to counteract the 'shut gate' policies developed by European countries against African immigrants. This report represents input at the highest levels of global policy making.

- 1991 B. I. Logan. 'Final Report, Fifth International Conference of the Transfer of Knowledge Through Expatriate Nationals (TOKTEN).' Manila, Philippines. This is a summary of the proceedings of an international conference on the brain drain from developing countries. The report is another example of input at the highest levels of global policy making.

Educational Cooperation Documents

- 1998 B. Logan. Agreement of cooperation between the University of Georgia and the University of Zimbabwe.
- 1995 B. I. Logan and D. Brooke. Agreement of cooperation between the University of Georgia and the University of Zululand, South Africa.

Grants for International Research and Curriculum Development

- 2000 D. Tevera, A. Chimhowu and B. I. Logan (co-PIs) International Heritage Corridors In Southern Africa: The Case of Trans-Boundary Conservation Initiatives in Zimbabwe, South Africa and Mozambique (550,000 Zim. Dollars, approx. US$11,500 over 3 years). Southern African Regional Institute of Policy Studies.
The purpose of this grant is to give social science input into the creation of a transboundary wildlife conservation area between the Republic of South Africa, Zimbabwe and Mozambique. The agreement on the park was signed by the heads of State of the 3 countries in 2000.
- 1998 B. I. Logan. UGA in Zimbabwe. ($4,500). I used these funds to travel to the University of Zimbabwe to establish a study abroad program. I held meetings with the president, deans and heads of department regarding the administration and curriculum for the study abroad. I also held meetings with home parents where students would stay, with transport companies for field trips, with catering services to provide lunch services and with tour companies. An Agreement of Cooperation was signed by the President of the University of Zimbabwe in 1998.
- 1997 B. I. Logan. 'Maintaining and Strengthening Institutional Links with the Universities of Zimbabwe and Zululand' ($4,150). A grant to establish Documents of Cooperation between UGA and institutions in Southern Africa and to give seminars in Zimbabwe and South Africa to project the name of the University of Georgia in the region. The Documents of Cooperation were signed by the President of UGA and by the President of the University of Zululand during a return trip to UGA.
